Visiting Instructor or Visiting Assistant Professor
#12024
College of Science and Mathematics
Department of Physics and Astronomy

The Department of Physics and Astronomy at Georgia Southern University seeks two visiting instructor or visiting assistant professor of physics for the upcoming academic year (August 2020 through May 2021). Although the position is located primarily on either the Armstrong or Statesboro campus, the successful candidate will also teach on one of the other two campuses.

At Georgia Southern, visiting instructors or visiting assistant professors normally teach fifteen credit hours per semester and hold regular office hours. All visiting positions are non-tenure track. The appointment is for fall 2020 – spring 2021 with the possibility of a one-year extension pending funding and satisfactory performance. The extension year would be a terminal year, without exceptions.

Required Qualifications:
• Earned master’s degree (for visiting instructor) or doctorate (for visiting assistant professor) in Physics or a closely related field by August 1, 2020.
• Evidence of commitment to teaching.
• Ability to teach undergraduate physics courses and laboratories.
• Ability to work with diverse populations.
• Effective communication skills in spoken and written English.
• Willingness to engage with institutional student success.
• Commitment to engaging with best practice initiatives in instruction and pedagogy, mentoring, and curriculum design and development.
• Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution.

Screening of applications will begin as they are received and continue until the position is filled. The position starting date is August 1, 2020. Interested candidates should send a complete application consisting of a letter addressing the qualifications cited above, including a verifiable statement regarding authorization to work unassisted in the US; a curriculum vitae; and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three professional references. Other documentation may be requested.
